ANN-CHRISTIN KAISER – KEVIN MALBAS – MARTINA ANGEЛИQUE
05 – 17 JULY 2010
DORFSTRASSE 73, GUMLIGEN – 031 951 88 89

VERNISSAGE: 5 JULY 17.00 – 20.00 (ALL 3 ARTISTS ARE PRESENT)

July is the month when Art Place88 introduces their undiscovered Artists. This year we start with Ann-Christin an emerging artist who has re-discovered her passion. She was educated as an architect in Germany and the United States; Ann-Christin is fascinated by the intersection of aesthetic intuition and design. After working in her profession in Mumbai, Berlin and Washington D.C. and taking a break to raise her two children, she has returned to painting, a life long passion. Normally she works with watercolours but lately has turned to acrylic mixed media. Then we have Kevin 22 years old University student from England whose abstract photography shows us that he is on the right track in majoring in FINE ART PHOTOGRAPHY. Kevin started with documentary style photography, photographing local bands. Kevin later went to London College of Communications to study photography for a year and then moved down to get his degree on Fine Arts at The Arts Institute at Bournemouth. Finally we have Martina Angelique even younger at 20 years. She has just finished her normal Swiss Schooling and is thinking of persuading Art in University Level. After this exhibition I am sure she will definitely look into it.
